

BACKCOUNTRY CAMPING

Permit required

Backcountry camping by permit is allowed anywhere in the NHAL. Permits are issued at the Clear and Crystal Lake Visitor Stations. Camping is not allowed within sight of any trail or body of water. Campsites must be at least one-half mile from your vehicle. For a complete list of backcountry camping rules, visit our website at: dnr.wi.gov. For questions and rules, contact the Clear Lake Visitor Station at 715-356-3668.

PRIMITIVE CAMPING

WELCOME TO OUR FOREST!

Camping opportunities in the Northern Highland American Legion State Forest (NHAL) are not limited to defined campgrounds. Other great opportunities are available.

CANOE CAMPING

No reservations and no fees required

Canoe camping is available at 88 canoe campsites located on more than 20 lakes and rivers across the NHAL State Forest. To use these sites, campers must access them by watercraft. Sites are marked with yellow signs displaying a tent. No campsite reservations are accepted, and no fee is required to use these campsites. All trash must be packed out. Stays are limited to one night only with a maximum of six people allowed per campsite.

Relax, unwind and let the canoe adventure begin.

REMOTE RESERVABLE CAMPING

Reservations and camping fees required

Remote reservable camping is available at 17 remote reservable primitive campsites. These campsites are available on Allequash, Day, Nebish and Clear Lakes and in the Bittersweet Wild Lakes Area. They are accessible only by water. These sites may be occupied for up to 14 nights per visit. Regular nightly camping fees apply. These sites may be reserved from May 1 through Oct. 31. After Oct. 31, these sites are available on a non-reservable basis. A maximum of six people are allowed per campsite.

Detailed canoe routes and canoe camping information and maps can be found in the NHAL State Forest Canoe Route brochure available at NHAL Visitor Stations.
